

In Loving Memory

RONALD "RONNY" IRAUSQUIN

... a cherished soul who had peace in the rhythm of the waves, has set sail on his final journey.

With a heart as vast as the ocean he loved, he embraced life with the same wonder and depth as the endless sea.

Whether fishing and feeling the salt air on his skin, or simply gazing at the horizon, the ocean was his sanctuary.

Though he has left our sight, his spirit will forever drift with the tides, whispering in the waves and shining in the sunlight on the water.

May he rest in eternal tranquility, carried by the currents of love and memory.

In Loving Memory
